- Yes
- No
- No position

How is your candidate supporting maternal mortality in their state? Provide any additional information about their current support for this public health issue.

Candidate Deborah Jackson has been an advocate for the expansion of Medicare in the State of Georgia since maternal mortality is partly due to limited access to quality health care services. Maternal mortality is a serious issue and has a particularly devastating impact on Black women. While Georgia has established a Maternal Mortality Review Committee to make recommendations to reduce future deaths, Candidate Jackson supports increased funding to provide additional healthcare workers such as nurse practitioners, and others, to provide prenatal care services.

- Yes
- No
- No Position/Unsure

Is there anything else you would like to add about your candidate's support of policies aimed at addressing maternal mortality rates?

Candidate Jackson believes that addressing maternal mortality should be a primary focus of efforts to expand access to quality health care. It is important to emphasize that just the mere expansion of access will not be sufficient to reduce maternal mortality on its own.

(Note- some of the questions on this survey have maternal morality instead of mortality).
